

METADATA

Title: Contemporary Euromediterranean Relations

Other Titles: -

Language: Greek

Authors: Seimenis, I., Professor, Univ. of the Aegean, Maris, G., Associate Professor, Univ. of the Aegean, Flouros, F., Postdoctoral Researcher, Univ. of the Aegean

ISBN: 978-618-228-110-9

Subject: HUMANITIES AND ARTS, LAW AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Keywords: Euro-Mediterranean Relations / Barcelona Process / Union of the Mediterranean / Regional Economic Cooperation

Bibliographic Reference: Seimenis, I., Maris, G., & Flouros, F. (2023). Contemporary Euromediterranean Relations [Undergraduate textbook]. Kallipos, Open Academic Editions. <http://dx.doi.org/10.57713/kallipos-344>

Abstract

The present book describes the evolution of Euro-Mediterranean relations, the European Neighborhood Policy, the Barcelona Process and the Union of the Mediterranean. It presents the Maghreb Countries, Egypt, Middle East Countries and Turkey as well as the Regional Economic Cooperation.

Furthermore, the Security issues in European Union and the Mediterranean and the Energy issue are presented. Moreover the challenges in the Euro-Mediterranean Region with emphasis to Democracy, the Migration crisis, the Energy and the Climatic change are also examined.

